Terms and Conditions (E-Statement)

'E-Statement' means the statement of account mailed electronically in the form of PDF format of the statement of account to the email address designated by the Accountholder for the purpose.

'Accountholder' means corporate customers maintaining account with Bank Alfalah Limited ('Bank') who have given their consent for sending E-Statement, instead of hard copy.

1. These Terms and Conditions are in addition to and form an integral part of the regular Terms and Conditions of account opening and its maintenance.
2. The E-Statement will be sent by the Bank electronically by email to the assigned/registered email address of the Accountholder, which is provided by the Accountholder and at the sole risk and responsibility of the Accountholder.
3. The Accountholder shall advise the Bank in writing, 7 (seven) business days prior to changing the email address or if he does not want the statement of account to be sent by email, otherwise Bank shall not be responsible in any manner whatsoever.
4. The Accountholder agrees and accepts that transmission lines of E-Statement/email are not encrypted and that email is not a secure means of transmission and is susceptible to viruses, errors, fraud, misuse, hacking, unauthorised/illegal Interception, alteration, manipulation or access by any third party, or unauthorised usage thereof, and the Bank shall not be responsible or liable for any loss or damage occurring from any such third party breaches/actions.
5. The Bank shall not be responsible for any delay, incomplete, improper or non-delivery of E-Statement for any reason whatsoever, including but not limited to telecommunication network failure or any other reason beyond the control of the Bank.
6. The Bank shall not be responsible or liable for any breach of secrecy or confidentiality in any manner and for any reason whatsoever, if contents of the E-Statement or email address becomes known to or accessed by any third party.
7. The Accountholder shall use the E-Statement for its company information and record and it shall not use or print and submit it for any legal requirement or to any visa granting authorities or educational institutions within or outside the country. If needed, the Accountholder may request the Bank to provide the Accountholder computer generated hard copy of the Statement of Account.
8. In case of corporate accountholders, it shall be the responsibility of the Accountholder to ensure that the E-Statement shall be under the custody of authorised/designated employee(s)/directors/partners of the company/firm. The Bank shall not be responsible or liable for any unauthorised or misuse of the E-Statement or any alteration/manipulation therein.
9. The Accountholder shall indemnify the Bank for any claim, loss, damage or legal action arising out of or as a result of transmission of the E-Statement or for any access, misuse or fraudulent use thereof by any third party
